Dear Parents/Caregivers,

After another long weekend, we move into the second week of school. Classes have settled well, as new pupils have joined us and are getting themselves set for a great year.

Coming up over the next two weeks are our Parent Orientation sessions. Each team of classes offers two sessions on the same day. One session is at 3.15pm, and the other starts at 5pm.

Each orientation session runs for about 45 minutes, and provides a lot of valuable information as the year moves forward. We encourage all our families to get to a session. We have organised each team for a different day, so there are no clashes between classes.

Check the dates inside.

Waitangi Day is important because you get a holiday, and it is also important because two groups agreed on rules to live together. On the 6th of February 1840, the Maori and British people came together and signed a treaty.

Waitangi Day

Waitangi Day is important to us because people from England sailed on a ship all the way to New Zealand. The British people spoke in English, but the Maori people could not speak like them. The British people agreed to help them. They made some rules to live together and they signed a treaty on February 6th, 1840.

Waitangi Day is important to us because you get a holiday. Also, the British Crown signed an agreement with the Maori people on the 6th February 1840. The British people had things they could share with the Maori people.

Waitangi Day

We celebrate Waitangi Day because the Maori and the British made a promise to work and live together. The two groups agreed on rules and the two groups signed a treaty.
