2022/11

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

Tomorrow sees the first of our Visiting Performer events for 2022. This is shown in more detail below.

At this stage we have over 90% of our pupils attending. Most of these have paid the annual VP Charge, while some have chosen to send their child to this particular show. That's called Pay as You Go.

If you have chosen the Pay as You Go system, and have not yet decided whether your child should go, the window will close at 9.00am tomorrow.

As each Visiting Performer event approaches, we will keep you informed.

Writers' Piece

Our contributions today come from Rooms 19 and 21.

In Room 19, we were learning to write Character Descriptions. They had to include powerful adjectives, verbs and one simile!

He walked out of the dark shadows as flies and insects followed him hugging his old and shaggy clothes. As he was walking through the alleyway, people nearby sprinted away as they saw his mischievous grin. His mouth was hiding behind his shaggy beard that was as thick and grey as a rusted wall.

Adit

He watches from behind a leaf. His eyes were focused on his prey. He was stern and serious. His eyes were as green as the paint on his face. His paint disappeared as rain started pouring. His village celebrated as he brought the prey.

Alaenah

Her hair was as white as paper. She sat in the lounge waiting for her grandchildren to come. Her wrinkly face smiled as the door opened. She put on her glasses and stroked her guide dog. She hugged her grandchildren tight.

Chloe

He limped into the cave. His beaded clothing rattled with every step he took. He took a piece of flint and steel, then lit a fire. His eyes lit up with agony and melancholy as the flames crackled like fireworks. His mane glowed orange as if it were the heart of the flame.

Isabelle

She looks as charming as a bunny before it was attacked by a tiger. She wanted more revenge than anyone would want. She saw war and not peace in the village.

Kullyn

In Room 21 we have been doing Acrostic Poems

Autumn Acrostic Poems

A lot of colourful leaves.
Unbelievable sight.
The colours of Autumn are beautiful.
Under the trees, there are leaves with a crunch.
My favourite leaves are the colourful ones.
No leaves on the trees, I see.

Amaan Ahmed

Autumn is the time of falling leaves.
Unpredictable season in March, April and May.
Temperature is dropping this season every time.
Under the trees and I see falling leaves.
Mythical foggy old season.
Numb fingers without feelings.

Armann Faruk

Autumn has different colours.
Under the trees, I see brown acorns and red conkers.
The leaves smell like cool mint.
Under the trees, I can hear lots of crunchy leaves.
More and more leaves fall down on soggy soil.
Nice time for the cosy fire to make me feel warm.
