13/2023

Greetings to Everglade families.

At the time this newsletter goes out, there is uncertainty about possible teacher strike action.

Right now the date of wednesday 31 May has been set aside for a strike by primary teachers. However, that has not been confirmed as there is still negotiation going on between the teachers' union (NZEI) and the Ministry of Education.

If agreement is reached, then the strike action will be called off. We may not know this until Monday 29 May. Once we are advised we will post the necessary information on HERO.

This is not an ideal situation; however, it is beyond our ability to do anything about it, so like you we are waiting to hear the news.

Fingers crossed!

Maths Mania 23 is well down the track.

Tomorrow and Friday see the testing done in each class. This will give each child an official 'score' which they can use to collect money from their sponsors.

For this to happen as smoothly as possible, it is important that ALL SPONSOR CARDS ARE BROUGHT BACK TO SCHOOL BY TOMORROW.

Once a child gets their score, this can be recorded on the Sponsor Card by the teacher, and used to show sponsors when collecting the money.

Thank you to those pupils and families who have returned their sponsor cards. If yours is still at home, please send it tomorrow.

Next week we are observing and celebrating Samoa Language Week. This will be an opportunity to have a focus on 'things Samoan' and learn more about the language and culture of one of our New Zealand groups.

Heads Up for next week

Every couple of years we try to get feedback on how we are doing as a school. We value the relationship with our community, and want to know what you think. Next week we will be sending out a simple survey on HERO to get your thoughts.

Please have a look at it; we encourage you to complete and submit.

Advance notice:

Monday 05 June is the King's Birthday public holiday. (It used to be Queen's Birthday)

There will be no school on that day.
